

The Exchange Program in partnership with sister schools is a guide to the world

An integral part of our relationship with our sister schools, is the exchange program that we have with each of our sister schools, and helps us strengthen these relationships. The exchange program accepts both long and short term students, as well as holding study tours for those students enrolled on the program.

In addition to the exchange program, Himeji International School is also planning to open offshore schools in Paraguay and Indonesia.

Khema Siri Memorial High School, Thailand

Founded in 1932, Khema Siri Memorial High School provides education to elementary school, junior high school, and senior high school students. Totalling approximately 2000 students, Khema Siri Memorial High School is known for its well-mannered students, and by emphasizing the importance of English education, continues to produce many students who go onto study at national universities in Thailand.

Nazareth High School, Warsaw, Poland

Founded in 1919, Nazareth High School is a private Catholic girls' school operated by the Nazarene nuns' association. It is a school composed of junior and senior high school and has a student population of around 330. In high school, there is an international course set up which has a program to certify the baccalaureate.

Tarakanita the First High School, Indonesia

Founded in 1962, located in south Jakarta, it is one of the high schools operated by the Tarakanita Foundation that was established by Netherland Catholic sisters. The number of students is about 400. They aim to raise young students into educated and capable women.

Japan Paraguay School, Paraguay

Founded in 2001, this school was established by a former Paraguayan Ambassador to Japan. This school offers education to students beginning from kindergarten to high school. At present, there are about 350 students who have origins from Japan.

Khema Siri Memorial High School

Nazareth High School

Tarakanita the First High School